

THE CHATTANOOGA DAILY REBEL.

VOLUME I.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1862.

NUMBER 89.

Terms of Subscription.

DAILY REBEL, per year	$10.00
Six Months	5.00
Three Months	3.00
One Month	1.00
Two Weeks	50 cents
The Cash must accompany all orders for the payment of subscriptions.

Shipments of private persons will receive no attention. Therefore such shipasters had better not be sent to us.

Rates of Advertising.

One Square of Tex. Lines per less, one insertion, 40 cents; and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion less than one month.

1 Month	2 Months	3 Months	4 Months	5 Months	6 Months
1 Square	57	100	13	90	160
2	100	13	00	16	20
3	13	17	21	00	24
4	17	21	24	30	30
5	21	24	28	30	35
6	24	28	30	35	40
7	28	30	30	35	40
8	30	30	30	35	40
9	30	30	30	35	40
10	30	30	30	35	40

Advertisements not inserted on day for a week will be published one month, and so on according to the above rates.

Official Notices charged one dollar and a half.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Interest-bearing Treasury Notes.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, C. S. A.,

Richmond, Sept. 26, 1862.

Public notice is hereby given that Congress has duly authorized the amount of interest of interest on the 7.50 Treasury Notes. The interest due on each note on the first day of January next will be paid to the respective holders on presentation at the Treasury or at any Depository of the Government.

(Signed) C. G. MEMMINGER,

With 1-in. Secretary of the Treasury.

To the Farmers of East Tennessee.

OUR armies need all the Hogs and Cattle you can give, and liberal prices will be paid for pork.

We have been requested to purchase of hogs, hams, corn, etc., in East Tennessee, and will appoint a sufficient number of agents to assist me, and delineate their territory, and will, in due time, publish their names.

We are determined to make prices "uniform" and like those in the South in East Tennessee, suitable for pork, will be followed.

My office, for the present, is Atlanta, Ga., will remain in Knoxville, soon. Letters addressed to me at either point will be attended to.

J. P. CUMMINGS,

Major and C. S. A.

DUGGS! DRUGS! DRUGS!

THOSE wishing anything in the drug line will find it much to their advantage to call at the stand of B. F. Tutt, where they can be supplied with such articles as are usually kept in Drug Stores, at prices to suit the times.

I have received a large supply of choice cigars and tobacco.

D. McDOUGLE,

Oct. 22-1m. (Sign of the Golden Mortar.)

DRUGS, MEDICINES, &c.

M. L. KENNEDY, at the old stand of W. E. Kennedy, will be pleased to meet his friends and customers as he is now engaged in the above line of business.

Physicians' prescriptions carefully prepared, &c.

M. L. KENNEDY,

Oct. 22-1m. (Sign of the Golden Mortar.)

RAILROAD FARE.

CIX CENTS PER MILE is the regular fare on this Railroad, and all persons entitled to the same will be charged at that rate. The distance of the conductor is to be reckoned after the contract of passengers and the safety of transmission.

Passengers who will travel with the horses of the Post, and other animals, are required to pay a FIVE CENTS PER MILE.

Passengers traveling on a carriage will be charged HALF FARE, provided they procure their own horses to pull it, and private and non-missionary officers.

R. C. JACKSON,

Supt East Tenn. & Georgia Railroad.

Knoxville, October 28, 1862.

LEIPER & MENIFFEY,

PRODUCE DEALERS AND

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Memphis—Tenn.

Oct. 28th, 1862.

MASONIC FEMALE INSTITUTE,

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Rev. J. N. Randolph, President.

The next Session of this Institute will commence on Monday the 1st day of September under the direction and professorship of the Rev. Mr. McGehee, who has had charge of it for the last ten months.

The trustees in making this announcement, would especially appeal to all citizens, who have daughters to educate, to send them to this institution. Mr. Bradshaw has had charge of it for the last ten months, during which time he has received ample, and we might say, universal satisfaction to the trustees, patrons and people. There never was a better school, nor a more congenial atmosphere than now.

—money is plenty, exceeding a full amount, bears two prices, and the tuition to this School is the same that it was when everything was at low ebb.

What excuse can there be for a man who neglects to educate his daughter? None. Because, in Cleveland a healthy locality, we have an Institute, with an excellent Instructor, aided by a sufficient corps of assistants, and a schoolroom fit for the use of its patronage. Let one and all put their shoulder to the wheel and build up such a School as will be of valuable benefit to us and enhonor to our town.

We have the building and we have the Teachers—the whole devolves upon the people. We hope they may never forget it.

The trustees thank the citizens for the patronage bestowed upon Mr. Bradshaw, here below, and are glad to know that under his administration the Institution has not lost any of the students it received in the better days of the Institute.

TERMS OF TUITION.

Primary Department, $12.00 per annum.

Freshman Class, 15.00 " "

Sophomore " 17.00 " "

Junior " 19.00 " "

Senior " 23.00 " "

In Music, Piano, Guitar or Violin, 20.00 " "

Melodeon, 20.00 " "

Thermometer, Cooking App., 20.00 " "

French and other Musical Instruments, 25.00 " "

Languages, French, German, Latin, 20.00 " each

In the Elementary Department, and provision will be made for the ordinary prices.

The rule of payment is one-half in advance, the rest to be paid in monthly installments.

Board can be had at $1.00, and at convenient boarding houses kept purposely for young ladies. The price of Board, including all expenses does not exceed $2.50 per week.

W. G. WILKES,

Secretary and Treasurer.

COMMITTED.

TO jail in Chattanooga on the 27th August, 1862, a negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.

A negro boy named Jack, always at his residence in James Creekell of Pontotoc county, Mississippi. He is about 6 feet 4 inches high, black complexion—his hair will come forward in white tufts, and three old bald heads, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them, and confined in a room, the door of which was always closed, with the note of the name of the negro, and the date of his confinement.